Lower Bavarian Butterflies

At Hofgut Hafnerleiten in Bavarian Bad Birnbach, the interactive offer „Time for Valentine“ by Anja Horn and Erwin Rückerl cause butterflies in the stomach. As the name of the offer already suspects, everything revolves around extensive moments of togetherness. In own houses between ponds and trees, couples enjoy a bath robe break, proffer - with help from the chef de cuisine - parts of the love menu for the partner or surprise each other with love letters, for which matching postcards lay prepared.

Two nights with half board, including breakfast, as well as the love menu with aperitif and table wine are bookable per person at double occupancy starting 395 Euro, the extended night costs starting at 165 Euro per person.
In Bad Herrenalb, couples in love can be kissed by a rose on Valentine's evening. The culinary team of Schwarzwald Panorama has thought of a gusto staging „Valentine 4.0“, a four-course menu with aphrodisiac ingredients such as celery, scallops, chocolate and even a „Rose Kiss“ as a dessert.

The matching offer at the hotel contains next to a night’s stay with breakfast and the Valentine’s menu including Apero, also a bottle of bubbly and a rose magic in the room and is available from 14 to 15 February 2016 starting at 159 Euro per person in a double room. Guests, who just want to savor the Valentine’s menu for 59 Euro per person including Apero, should secure their table fast.

Wellness Romance in Drachselried
When was the last time that we found time for an extended chat with our sweetheart? Exactly - in everyday life, these precious moments often run short. This is why the pampering program of Refugium Lindenwirt in the Bavarian Forest is called "Time for Two".

Next to two nights and a 3/4 board with seasonal treats, there are three partner massages on the program for love couples: "relaxing back" (about 30 minutes), "joy for the legs" (about 25 minutes) and "free head and neck" (about 25 minutes). During walks in the wonderful area in the popular Bodenmais region, the first sun beams warm the hearts. The relaxing Valentine’s weekend in Drachselried is bookable starting at 326 Euro per person at double occupancy.

East Tyrolean Sizzle Mood
At Gradonna Mountain Resort in Kals, hostess Martha Schultz conjures pink clouds over the Grossglockner. Her Valentine’s offer is called “Newly in-love” and pays attention to many romantic little somethings, from the crackling fireplace on the flatscreen to the “Hot Love” ice cream bowl for two.

With three nights in a double room, couples in-love enjoy a view onto the Kals high plateau, a comprehensive breakfast buffet with local products, a bubbly breakfast in the room, evening treat menus, as well as a relaxing massage for two. At the latest, during the gondola ride and the lunch at the mountain with a view onto the Grossglockner, Amor’s arrows will only fly through the skies of East Tyrol. The Gradonna Valentine’s package is available from 13 to 27 February 2016 starting 546 Euro per person in the double room classic.

"I love you" in the Dolomites
In the South Tyrollean Leithof in the Hochpustertal, couples say "I love you" in the imperial tub. Not only on Valentine’s Day does the same-named offer of the climate-neutral business in the Dolomites guarantee a harmonious love short trip. Refreshing spa treatments, like a rose petal bath for two and relaxing partial massages are combined with two nights, two times a cozy breakfast in the room and a gala candlelight dinner.

Arriving on 12 February, the romantic special is available starting 588 Euros for two people in a double room. Guests, who come for the winter sports to host family Mühlmann or live close by the hotel can also choose special Valentine’s gift certificates for couples for the wellness oasis.
